The Grave White Way

Musical fans will find a lot to crow about in Joe Patrick Ward's The Grave White Way. A complete spoof of the musical genre from its inception to the present, The Grave White Way takes the audience where few, very few, have ever gone before ... the other side of Broadway. This is not a show about the super-spectacles shows whose names have appeared in bright lights along some of New York's famed boulevards. This is a show about a series of fictional musicals like Lady Hiroshima, Jurassirrific!, Nazareth High and Look Before You Leper that never made it to the Great White Way. If you love musicals, you'll love how The Grave White Way tears them apart. – Duane Wells

THE GRAVE WHITE WAY will play a limited seven-week engagement with preview performances beginning Thursday, May 3 with the official opening on Friday, May 11.
